English - Ancient Origins

Class Discussion

What Is the difference in a hero and a villain?

What qualities might the hero of a story have?

Is a villain always as easy to identify?

How might the villain of a story come against the hero?

Can you think of an examples (real or fictional) of heroes and villains?

ASSERTION:

A hero has only good characteristics

> Agree or disagree? Evidence:

Agree or disagree? Evidence:

ASSERTION:

Good always wins in the end

Agree or disagree? Evidence:

Agree or disagree? Evidence:

ASSERTION:

A character can be presented in different ways

> Agree or disagree? Evidence:

> Agree or disagree? Evidence:

Key words and Vocabulary

KEY TERM	DEFINITION	KEY TERM	DEFINITION
omnipotent		chronology
deity		metaphor
catastrophe		epic
characterisaton		metre
hubris		context
myth		epithet
thesis		allusions
labrynth		juxtapostition

English - Ancient Origins

Through year 7, the focus will be on the creation of character and story, and how we can learn our place in the world through the study of texts over time. In particular, we explore the concept of heroes and villains. This particular unit goes back to the stories that gave birth to the ideas of heroes and villains, to ancient Greece through Homer's Odyssey and other myths.

The Illiad:

How did the story of the Trojan War shape our understanding of what a hero truly is? Story:

The Iliad follows the Trojan War, focusing on Achilles' wrath after Agamemnon seizes his prize, Briseis. This leads to epic battles between Greeks and Trojans, highlighting themes of honor, fate, and mortality. Key figures include Hector, Paris, and gods intervening in human affairs, culminating in Achilles' tragic return to battle.

Narrative Structure: Freytag's Pyramid

Grammar

Noun: a person, place or thing Verb: an action or state of being Adverb: a word that modifies the verb Adjective: a word that describes the noun

Preposition: a word that tells you where something is in relation to something else

Prepositional phrase: a phrase that starts with a preposition and ends with a noun phrase

Expanded noun phrases: a phrase in which more detail is added to the noun, such as adjectives and prepositional phrases

Appositives: a noun phrase that modifies another noun phrase, like a synonym

Auxiliary Verbs: minor verbs that support the main verb, usually to create different tenses

Simple sentence: a sentence with one subject and one verb

Compound sentence: a sentence that joins two or more simple sentences together with a conjunction

Complex sentence: a sentence that has a main clause and a subordinate clause that cannot exist on its own

Key words and Vocabulary		a subordinate clause that cannot exist on its own
KEY TERM	DEFINITION	KEY TERM	DEFINITION
omnipotent	All-powerful; having unlimited power and authority	chronology	The arrangement of events in the order of their occurrence deity	A god or goddess; a divine being	metaphor	describes something by saying it's something else catastrophe	A sudden and widespread disaster or misfortune;	epic	A lengthy narrative poem, typically detailing heroic deeds and adventures
characterisaton	The way in which an author reveals the personality and traits of a character in a story.	metre	the rhythm (or pattern of beats) in a line of poetry hubris	Excessive pride or self-confidence, often leading to downfall	context	The circumstances or setting in which an event occurs
myth	A traditional story, that explains a cultural phenomenon or belief	epithet	A descriptive phrase or term used to characterize a person or thing thesis	A statement or theory put forward as a premise to be proved or maintained	allusions	Indirect references to a person, event, or piece of literature
labrynth	a complicated maze	juxtapostition	The act of placing two or more elements side by side for contrast
St Bede's		Vocik 7	Auturon 2